

FOUR YOUR EYES ONLY

The clues in this puzzle lead to words or phrases which each contain the letter I exactly four times. Clues are in alphabetical order of their answers and the placement of the Is (represented by eyes in the diagram) enable the answers to be placed in the grid.

Only one column has letters in each row, these spell GUM INFLAMMATION which is a clue to GINGIVITIS, a word with four eyes and the answer to this puzzle. Answers to each clue are written below.

- The process of reducing the pH of an object - ACIDIFICATION
- A blessing when it's 40C/100F out! - AIR CONDITIONING
